Greetings from Peter HPH (HOME-PETER-HEIMAT)

How can you recognize the end of this 3-dimensional world?
Hello dear soul units, according to my balance sheet I can see in my whole soul unit, that on the one hand the souls of animals and the souls of humans are already out of the world on the other hand everything is still in the world. This means that we always only have a certain time to live. We can choose and walk a certain path. In order for this to be really recognized, full awareness in the here and now is needed. Only in this way is it possible for a true soul unity to experience and recognize the omnipresent truth, because through this there is also a connection with the all-embracing truth.
