

How can you recognize the end of this 3-dimensional world?

Hello dear soul units, according to my balance sheet I can see in my whole soul unit, that on the one hand, life, nature, all souls of animals and the whole earth

are already out of balance and on the other hand everything has its limits,

Due to all causes and effects, that means that we always only have a certain time window so that we can choose and walk a path for the better.

In order for this life path to be really recognized, full awareness in the here and now is needed. Only in this way is it possible for a true soul unity to experience and recognize the omnipresent truth,

because through this there is also a connection with the all-embracing truth.

The whole knowledge of the ubiquitous life situation worldwide is then also possible via the resonance vibrations. So, a sure thing really 3 conditions are needed, a pure heart, true love and true faith orientation in complete communion with all angels, ascended masters, life units and of course especially with the unity of being and with the creator unity. Yes, due to all current causes, there are many possibilities, for example: if there are sufficient soul unities, out of pure love and gratitude, through true belief orientation completely voluntarily, independently and completely truthfully according to the holy will of the highest creative unity, want to live together with all units of life with a pure heart; Then it is possible that many of the repercussions can be reduced or possibly even eliminated.

Of course, everything is also a question of time, everyone has full responsibility for his whole life, consciously or unconsciously. Yes, how can I tell when the 5th dimension is completely in harmony with mother earth transformed?

This is a secret that can only be made possible and recognized in connection with the true unity of being. Only the father of all being and all life, the true creator-unity, knows exactly when. Jesus Christ revealed that everyone who truly loves him and lives by his commandments, to him he will reveal everything, even his whole being and the whole being one with all being.

Yes, the vibrations from the sun have gotten a little stronger lately

I can still cope with that, drink enough, my soul always shows me immediately if I should drink water and exactly how much is needed, it is the same with food, as a vegetarian I live exactly what I need to live, of course one if possible organic food with good foods.

Because of the resonance vibrations, which I also very precisely about my soul unity from many people, it is a very important need for me as needed and Care to be of service without expectations of course.

For some time now I have been living consciously in the here and now because I have recognized that just as I chose this path of life about 40 years ago, that everything in life, i.e. all being, is just a matter of attention, so that I am in harmony with all units of life and in harmony with the all-embracing truth right in the now, can experience and recognize everything that is really needed and can live completely together with all angels and ascended masters through total oneness.

Yes, I hope you are doing well and have everything you need to live. I also addressed unconditional love on my homepage (www.friedeundeinheit.de), this great true love is completely independent of this 3-dimensional world. Yes, in the 5th-dimensional world we can live unconditional love 100% and really being there for one another.

I already have me in my heart for about 40 years be able to align with the true creator unity through Jesus Christ and experienced many spiritual experiences and realizations. I was born on September 18, 1960 into this world, I cry when I remember what I've left behind. But I already knew everything in advance what I was getting myself into in this world. Yes, only with unconditional love could I endure all the humiliations, without any expectations.

Many can certainly tell a song about it, so I know why everyone these developments have their origin. Again, and again I made a life balance and recognized that in this 3rd dimension, all the blockages only happened out of ignorance and inability. Yes, hope for a better and better life can never die because yes, with true belief orientation, all angels and ascended masters together

always form and are a unity with the whole of creation, forever.

How can you recognize the end of this 3-dimensional world?

That families and friends split up because you want to go another way of life.

Everything in life has its limits and only what you have learned, experienced and recognized; you can live with all like-minded soul units.

Now you can see much more easily when you still have something to clean up.

It is written in the Bible: When the end is near, you shouldn't look back anymore, that really means that you should let go of everything that has passed so that you can experience and recognize the omnipresent truth.

Then you only need yourself in the here and now, with the true belief orientation, with true love and with your true soul unity, orientate together with the true unity of being. Now many sheep, the true soul units, have already separated from the wolves because the sheep know their shepherd, Jesus Christ the Lord and savior, who lives in the true unity of being.

All burdens of sin can only be resolved with the help of Jesus Christ, because he has received all power over the whole of being from the Father, the true creator-unity. Jesus Christ said: I give you my peace and I leave your peace to you. He also meant that he wanted to give true love and who has accepted true love with the true unity of being, will live forever in the glory of all being. Yes, rejoice all, you children of light, because the Lord and Savior is spiritually present and very close to you. Yes, he wants to take up residence in your pure heart, then you can experience and recognize the whole glory of God. Rejoice in life always and be completely grateful for every blessing you have received.

Live according to the 10 commandments. Love your neighbor like your true self, that means: Love your neighbor, according to your free choice, just like yours true body unity, your true mind unity and love your true soul unity, in tune with true creator unity. Anything you don't want, how your neighbor treats you then don't treat your neighbor the same way.
And everything you want your neighbor, according to your free choice, should give, give or help, you live that first with your neighbor whom you have chosen, in harmony with the true Creator-Unity,

from the 4th to the 5th dimension. Become completely one with your true soul unity in harmony with the true unity of being and then with the true creator oneness. Then you will become in tune with joy and bliss want to live with all units of life, from the 5th dimension.

From this everyone can recognize how real life would like to be and how it will be.

Yes, now the old world can be let go and the new earth accepted.

These are realizations that are recognized in accordance with the spirit of truth were.
